

K100 Weekly Update

December 1st - December 9th

Dear K100 Families,

Tis the season to be jolly! I cannot believe how times flies when you're having fun! We had a wonderful time on our field trip to see the Nutcracker.

We have been working so hard in Kindergarten and we have a lot of fun things planned this month. Thank you so much for working with your child on a special birthday card for me! It was so special and I enjoyed each card!

Upcoming events:

Report cards come home next week. Please make sure to sign the envelope and return it ASAP. Thank you 😊

Friday, December 8th- 1pm Awards Ceremony in the parish center.

Friday, December 15th- Kindergarten Polar Express day- the Children may wear clean P.J's to school. Please NO SLIPPERS 😊

Monday, December 18th- Grinch Day- Children may wear GREEN!

Wednesday, December 21st and Thursday, December 22nd- 9am Kindergarten play- Big News in Bethlehem.

Thursday, December 22nd-Happy Birthday Baby Jesus Celebration- Secret Santa book exchange!

What we are learning:

Math-3D shapes and writing numbers

Reading- We are working on short vowel /a/. I will be sending home new sight words this month. Please keep reading with your child each night. Sight words: one, two, three, four, five, here, go, from, you, they, of, are, that, do

Religion-Advent and The First Christmas

We have many December birthdays! If your child has a December birthday and you plan on celebrating in the classroom, please contact me to set up a day. 😊

Thank you for all your support!

Happy Holidays!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Provino